'WE'RE AWARE AND INFORMED'

We detect and understand the threat, while our people look out for each other and know what to do when something happens

- New Zealanders have the information they need to be aware, engaged and stay safe.
- Our security agencies have the right capabilities to detect and understand the threat to New Zealand.
- We share appropriate information across the public and private sector.

'PARTNERSHIPS ARE KEY'

We work collectively as a nation to reduce the risk

- Our capabilities across government are integrated, effective, efficient, and reflect our values.
- We work in partnership with the public, communities, the private sector and local government.
- We work with our international partners to identify and prevent terrorism and violent extremism of all kinds.

'PREVENTION IS OUR PRIORITY'

We focus our efforts and capabilities on effective, longterm prevention

- Our inclusive society addresses the causes of violent extremism.
- We support those in need and promote the rehabilitation of people with violent extremist views.
- Enabled by appropriate legislation, we act early and proportionately to prevent attacks and keep people safe.
- We safeguard and build resilience in our communities, especially those at higher risk.
- Those responsible for the safety of others know and meet their obligations.
