Official Information Act request relating to contact details for the Special Envoy

Thank you for your Official Information Act 1982 request received on 20 June 2023. You requested:

I would like to invite the Special Envoy for the Christchurch Call to an event relevant to her work but I cannot find any details for how to send an invite to her. I am NOT seeking personal contact details rather I am seeking official contact details for invitations such as an invitations email address or details of an executive assistant or diary coordinator.

I wish I didn't have to ask via OIA but I have tried many other approaches and none have been successful.”

Information about the Christchurch Call can be found at its website, <https://www.christchurchcall.com>. This website includes contact details for the Christchurch Call secretariat, which can be contacted by sending an email to: info@christchurchcall.com.

The Christchurch Call secretariat advises that if you send an enquiry or invitation to this email address, the secretariat will pass the details on to the Special Envoy for consideration.

Ngā mihi
